

Activating new technologies for CLIL-practice (FI-2012-105-001)

14—18 May 2012

Course location

Granada, Spain

Principal course facilitators

David Marsh

Peeter Mehisto

Isabel Perez Torres

Tuula Asikainen

Course objectives

- to familiarize participants with different online tools for integrating CLIL and ICT
- to provide skills development in adapting new technologies into CLIL practice
- to provide insights into how new technologies and CLIL can support development of Key Competences

Course fee

750 € (tuition and materials)

Accommodation

500 € (accommodation and breakfast)

Contact person

Tuula Asikainen, tuula.asikainen@lapinkesayliopisto.fi

Link to registrations

<https://www.webropol.com/P.aspx?id=579208&cid=128526828>

Provisional programme

May be subject to change

Day 1:

Introductions and Orientation

Review of pre-course survey

Reflection of own practice

Linking CLIL and ICT: Introduction to online tools 1.

Review of day 1

Day 2:

Learning environments

Tasks and activities in multimodal CLIL delivery

Introduction to online tools 2.

Resources and materials

Planning stage 1. Review of day 2.

Day 3 :

Multimodal CLIL delivery continued

Planning tasks and activities - stage 2.

Review of day 3.

Day 4:

Innovation and integration: Key competences revisited

Finalizing own plans

Review of day 4.

Day 5:

Peer review of plans, testing plans

Planning future actions

Course evaluation.

